The main topic of the School 2016 concerns innovative ideas in psychotherapeutic and psychosocial approaches in treatment for people suffering from psychoses. The innovative ideas spread over the range from „amniotic psychotherapy“ to 'open dialogue' technique, including modifications of approaches in the individual and group psychodynamic psychotherapy, organization of programs in hospital and outpatient settings that combine sociotherapy and rehabilitation, including concepts of mentalisation in treatment of persons with psychoses.

All interested colleagues and therapists that consider their approach to be innovative are welcome to submit their proposals. Deadline for proposals: March 15 2016
